Task 1 Questions 41 to 45 are based on the following passage:

Directions: After reading the following passage, you should make the correct choice and mark the corresponding letter on the Answer Sheet with a single line through the centre.

Having returned from her round trip (往返旅程), the angry woman stood outside the ticket office of the station. "The railway owes me £12", she said to Harry Jenks, the young man working at the office. "You sold me a ticket for May 22nd, but there was no ship from Jersey that night. So my daughter and I had to stay in a hotel. It cost me £12."

Harry was worried. He remembered selling the woman a return ticket. "Come into the office, Madam," he said politely. "I'll just check the Jersey timetable for May 22nd."

The woman and her little girl followed him inside. She was quite right, as Harry soon discovered: there was no sailing on May 22nd. How could he have made such a careless mistake? He shouldn't have sold her a ticket for that day. Wondering what to do, he smiled at the child. "You look sun-burnt," he said to her. "Did you have a nice holiday in Jersey?"

"Yes," she answered, shyly. "The beach was lovely. And I can swim too!"

"That's fine," said Harry. "My little girl can't swim a bit yet. Of course, she's only three..."

"I'm four," the child said proudly. "I'll be four and a half." Harry turned to the mother. "I remember your ticket, Madam," he said. "But you didn't get one for your daughter, did you?"

"Er, well—" the woman looked at the child. "I mean... she hasn't started school yet. She's only four."

"A four-year-old child must have a ticket, Madam. A child's return ticket to Jersey costs... let me see... 13.50. So if the railway pays your hotel,you will owe£1.50. The law is the law,but since the fault was mine...”

The woman stood up,took the child's hand and left the office.

- 41.The woman was angry because_____
- A.she couldn't use the ticket for her round trip
 - B.she had to return home a day earlier than she had planned
 - C.she spent more money than she had expected
 - D.Harry had sold her a ticket to Jersey where there was no sailing
- 42.Harry was worried because _____
- A.the woman was angry with him
 - B.he had not done his work properly
 - C.the Jersey timetable was wrong
 - D.the little girl didn't have a return ticket
- 43.Harry started talking to the little girl _____
- A.because he was in difficulty and did not know what to do
 - B.because he had a little girl about the same age as this girl
 - C.because he wanted to be friendly to the little girl who looked so nice
 - D.when he suddenly realized that he could find a way out from the little girl
- 44.When Harry said,"The law is the law,but since the fault was mine.....,"he meant that _____
- A.they must follow it without other choice,even though the fault was his
 - B.he had to be strict with the woman because of the law,although he didn't want to
 - C.the woman had to pay him£1.50 and the railway would pay for the hotel
 - D.she should pay£1.50,but as he had made a mistake,she could go without paying
- 45.The woman left the office without saying anything because _____
- A.she wanted to go home and get money for the child's ticket
 - B.she was so angry that she didn't want to have anything more to do with the young man
 - C.she was moved by Harry's kindness
 - D.she knew she would have to pay the railway if she insisted.

Task 2 Directions: This task is the same as Task 1.

Questions 46 to 50 are based on the following passage:

In ancient times the most important examinations were spoken,not written.In the school of ancient Greece (古希腊)and Rome,testing usually consisted of saying poems aloud or giving speeches.

In the European universities of the Middle Ages,students who were working for advanced degrees had to discuss questions in their field of study with people who had made a special study of the subject. This custom exists today as part of the process of testing candidates (参赛者) for the doctor's degree.

Generally, however, modern examinations are written. The written examination, where all the students are tested on the same questions, was probably not known until the nineteenth century. Perhaps it came into existence with the great increase in population and the development of modern industry. A room full of candidates for a state examination, timed exactly by electric clocks and carefully watched over by managers, is similar to a group of workers at an automobile factory. Certainly, during examinations, teachers and students are expected to act like machines.

One type of test is sometimes called an "objective" test (客观试题). It is intended to deal with facts, not personal opinions. To make up an objective test, the teacher writes a series of questions, each of which has only one correct answer. Along with each question the teacher writes the correct answer and also three statements that are like answers to students who have not learned the material properly.

46. In the Middle Ages, students _____
 A. took objective tests
 B. specialized in one subject
 C. sat in a room full of candidates
 D. never wrote in exams
47. Paragraph 3 mainly tells us that _____
 A workers now take examinations
 B the population has grown
 C there are only written examinations today
 D examinations are usually written and timed now
48. The kind of examinations in which students must select answers is _____
 A. subjective
 B. objective
 C. spoken
 D. informal
49. According to the passage, modern industry must have developed _____
 A before the Middle Ages
 B around the nineteenth century
 C in Greece or Rome
 D machines to take tests
50. It may be concluded that testing _____
 A should deal with only opinions
 B should always be written
 C has changed since the Middle Ages
 D is given only in factories

Task 3

Directions: After reading the following passage, you are required to complete the answers that follow the questions asked. You should write your answers briefly on the Answer Sheet correspondingly.

Jason Queally is one of the fastest men in the world on a bicycle. But do you really call the thing in the picture a bicycle? Well, yes. Jason's human-powered (人力的) machine, with its two wheels, is, of course, a bicycle.

Every year, a very important human-powered bicycle race is held in Nevada,USA.The speed of the bike is measured (测定) for only 200 metres,but players take more than a kilometer to get their bikes going fast.Jason Queally's fastest speed for the 200-metre race was 103.5 kilometers an hour.

At this year's race,Jason failed to reach the finishing line.He was speeding along at about seventy kilometers an hour when he began to lose control (控制) of his bike.When he tried to slow down,it began to smoke.Soon the inside of his bike was filled with smoke.He couldn't see,and he couldn't breathe.At seventy kilometers an hour,a crash(撞击) could be very serious.Jason was frightened.But he managed to stop the bike safely.He would repair his bicycle and try again another time to be the world's fastest man on a bike.Better luck next time,Jason.

Maybe you're surprised that these bikes go so quickly,but is it useful?It could be.Cars are becoming more and more popular,and they are very safe,comfortable and easy to drive,but they also pollute the air in our cities.Scientists and engineers are learning from fast racing bikes how to make human-powered vehicles (车辆) that might be useful for daily travel.

51.Is Jason's human-powered machine a bicycle?

52.How often is the human-powered bicycle race held in Nevada?
